

The Big Three

The Big Three

 Identify

 Target

 Highlight

Stinchcomb-Groth Memorial

Rocky River Reservation

Groth Memorial

Harold W. Groth

Second Executive Director
1957-73

Stinchcomb Memorial

William A. Stinchcomb
"Father of Cleveland Metroparks"

Visionary: 1905
First Executive Director:
1921- 1957

Stinchcomb and Groth led Park District for 52 years.
Together they kept the vision alive.

Stinchcomb Memorial

William A. Stinchcomb
"Father of Cleveland Metroparks"

Visionary: 1905
First Executive Director:
1921- 1957

Groth Memorial

Harold W. Groth

Second Executive Director 1957-73

Stinchcomb and Groth led Park District for 52 years.

Together they kept the vision alive.

A.B. Williams Memorial Woods

North Chagrin Reservation

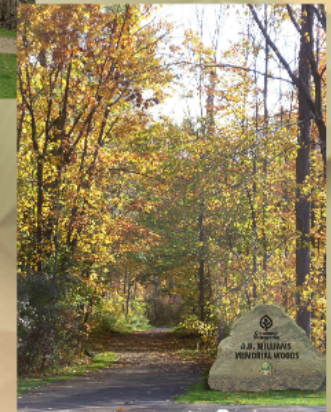

North Chagrin
Trailside Museum

Opened July 4, 1931

Original Trailside Museum in Cleveland Metroparks.
One of first in nation for outdoor education purposes.

A.B. Williams
Memorial Woods

Sixty-five (65) acres designated in 1951 as a tribute to the naturalist-scientist-author.

Arthur B. Williams

1930

* started Outdoor Education in Cleveland Metroparks

* contracted through Cleveland
Museum of Natural History
1930 - 1950

Arthur B. Williams

1930

* started Outdoor Education in Cleveland Metroparks

* contracted through Cleveland
Museum of Natural History
1930 - 1950

North Chagrin Trailside Museum

Opened July 4, 1931

Original Trailside Museum in Cleveland Metroparks.
One of first in nation for
outdoor education purposes.

A.B. Williams Memorial Woods

Sixty-five (65) acres designated in 1951 as a tribute to the
*naturalist- scientist-author.

Brecksville Historic Campus

Brecksville Reservation

Brecksville Nature Center

~ Opened June 11, 1939 ~
Only one of original three Trailside Museums still remaining.

~ 1992 ~
Listed on National Register of Historic Places.

Harriet Keeler
Memorial and Woods

Dedicated in 1921 to honor the life and service of Harriet Keeler,
teacher-author-citizen.

Three hundred seventy
(370) acres
re-dedicated in 1990.

Harriet Keeler
Shelterhouse

Front portion of
shelterhouse (1928)
is oldest shelter in Cleveland Metroparks.

Brecksville Nature Center

~ Opened June 11, 1939 ~
Only one of original three Trailside Museums still remaining.

~ 1992 ~
Listed on *National Register of Historic Places.

Harriet Keeler Shelterhouse

Front portion of
shelterhouse (1928)
is oldest shelter in Cleveland Metroparks.

Harriet Keeler Memorial and Woods

Dedicated in 1921 to honor the life and service of Harriet Keeler,
teacher-author-citizen.

Three hundred seventy
(370) acres
re-dedicated in 1990.

The Big Three

